Unto the Glorious populace of the Outlands, do We, Alrik III and Salomea, send greetings.

We hope that everyone is enjoying the warmth and leisure that summer has brought to Our fair Kingdom. By the time most of you read this, you will either be on your way to or returning from adventures at the very first Battlemoor. The endeavor that has been the focus of vision, planning, and work now matures to an event of grand scale not seen in the Outlands for years. It has grown from the love and lifeblood of some of Our most talented subjects. Without the selfless dedication and countless hours of labor gifted by Duchess Caimneach Uiseir of Glendalough, Count Giovanni di Sienna, Mistress Bennet Murray, Duchess Madigan of Kandihar, and Jarl Boleslav Ragnarson, this dream would not have been realized. The work of caring hands lent by sub autocrats, coordinators, clean-up crew, cooks, inter-kingdom ambassadors, and all other volunteers make this a true Outlands collaboration reflective of the depth of skill, wisdom, and creativity present in this magnificent Kingdom. We trust that the soaring pride and enthusiasm born from this major accomplishment will sustain Our worthy populace in the seasons to come.

We look forward to attending many remaining summer gatherings throughout the Kingdom. This promises to be a most memorable season of camping, revelry, and celebration of Outlands prowess. We hope to be joined by all gentles in the realm who wish to heed the call for renewal and growth.

NOTICE

A Change to Kingdom law

VIII. OFFICES AND OFFICERS

A. Officers must live within the recognized boundaries of the area they serve.

Change to:

A. All officers in and for the Kingdom of the Outlands must live in the Kingdom of the Outlands. Local officers, with the exception of those listed below, must live within the recognized boundaries of the area they serve, or have permission of their Kingdom superior. The following will still be required to live within the boundaries of the area they serve:

1. Baron and/or Baroness
2. Seneschal
3. Exchequer/Reeve

Seneschal

Greetings,

I am currently seeking deputies to this office from al-Barran and Caerthe to act as points of contact for Crown Tournaments and Coronations. Their Majesties have decided to have these two events occur in central locations in the Northern and Southern Outlands. Any group can host these, but they will always be in the same geographical location. The deputy will be the contact for the hosting group. It is Their Majesties hope that this will increase participation in these events. Please let me know if you are interested in these positions, or if you would like additional information about this matter.

As you open your Outlandish Herald today, I hope that you have just returned from Battlemoor Mountain Crusades with many happy memories and stories. I wish to thank the autocrats and all the volunteers that have made this event possible. It was truly spectacular and once again proved the Outlands is the greatest Kingdom in the Known World. There are still many events to choose from this summer season, so please support these as you can. Don't forget to take all the proper precautions when camping, and please use care when traveling to and from events.

I want to thank Maistre Louis Philippe for his service as our Kingdom Exchequer. He has given much time and energy to this office, and his attention to detail will be missed. Once again a reminder to everyone that the Board of Directors has approved raising the nonmember surcharge to $5.00 from the current $3.00, and membership dues by $5.00 beginning July 1st.

In conclusion, I will be in attendance at Lonely Mountain Defender in the Shire of Drygestan this month. Additionally, I will be going to Europe for three weeks beginning July 23rd. I will have limited email access while there, so can only deal with minor issues. Master Juan Balthazar Tegero will be my emergency contact while I am gone. I hope that his services will not be needed, but I am glad he will be here just in case.

Yours in Service,

Master James David

White Stag

Greetings to the Great and Glorious Folk of the Outlands –

Between when this letter was written and published, the KWHSS occurred. I know there is news coming from there, which I'll be sharing over the next few months.

I would like to welcome Lady Tatiana Moskovskia as incoming Castle Herald and thank Baron Carrick for his work as Castle Herald and for moving to the office of Rampart Herald. For those who don't know, Castle Herald handles the intra-kingdom submission process while Rampart handles the extra-kingdom process. They are both critical parts of getting our names and devices registered in a timely fashion.

As always, I would like to hear any comments you have about the College of Heralds. Complements, complaints, and general commentary are all appreciated.

Question for the Month – What is slot-machine heraldry? The popular name given to the part of Rule for Submissions VIII.1.a., which states that "three or more types of charges should not be used in the same [charge] group." In Argent, in fess a cherry gules, a bell sable, and a lime vert, there are three types of charges (cherry, bell, and lime) in the primary charge group; in Argent, two lions combattant and a sword and axe crossed in saltire, there are also three types of charges (lion, sword, and axe) in the primary charge group. Taken from the SCA College of Arms Glossary of Terms accessible at <http://heraldry.sca.org/coagloss.html>.

In Service to the Outlands,
Shetk Omar Mohammud Mirzazadeh

Chronicler

Greetings,

I Hope you are all enjoying the new layout of the Outlandish Herald. I would like to thank everyone who has submitted articles to me. I would like to point out, that with the end of the first Battlemoor, I am sure there are very interesting stories you can share with the rest of the outlands. Please do not hesitate to submit these (and any other SCA related articles) to me. Let us share stories with those who may not have heard them, or are not from your area.

You may have also noted that the event articles have gotten shorter. These are a half page, which is about 1500 characters for a good fit (1700 max). If you wish to have your event printed, please keep this limitation in mind. As always, I will print the minimum information regardless of length (see the submission guidelines).

Yours in Service,
Cady Cáelatnn Ingen Cháemgetn hui Thatdc

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

All marshals are to be safety officers and teachers. This includes the constant monitoring of fighting at practices, tournaments, melees, and wars. Sounds like a duh, but we need to watch for signs of trouble.

Broken thrusting tips or flapping armour are the most obvious signs. We are pretty good at catching this and getting it off the field. But we need to watch how a fighter walks and stands. Staggering like they are drunk or swaying after a hit are also signs that we must look for. These could be signs of too many pain killers or not enough water or something more. Having an active green card does not mean you can fight anytime and anywhere. The marshals must make sure that the field is safe. At all times. Marshals should take the time to walk through the fighters and talk with them. Look and listen.

The first two All Marshals meetings have been held. That leaves the meeting at Stag's Con. It is a requirement that you attend one of these meetings per year to remain a qualified marshal.

Str Dennis the Wright

Rapier Marshal

Hopefully I've had the chance to meet many of you at Battlemoor, but for those who were unable to attend and do not know me, my name is Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina. I am a long time resident of the Barony of Caerthe and have been fencing for mumble mumble years.

Before getting to the nuts and bolts of this missive, I'd like to take a moment to thank my predecessor, Don Ulrich, for the excellent job that he did while in office. Ulrich, enjoy your stout! You've earned it.

Onward to the dry required notes and reminders. First, authorizing marshals: If you have not already contacted me either in person, or by phone or e-mail, please do so within the week. Anyone who doesn't do so will be removed from the rolls of active AMs.

Local marshals and marshals-in-charge, please make sure your reports are to me on or before the 20th of the month. I'll need a little bit of time to compile them so I can pass my own report up the pipeline. If you're new to the post and aren't sure what to report about, contact me and I'll tell you what I need to see.

Should you have questions or concerns, my contact information is listed here in the OH or on the Outlands website. I look forward to working with and for all of you over the next two years.

In Service,
Rivka

Archer General

As you read this, Battlemoor will be over. I am sure that we all had a great time. I would like to thank Earl Mika for all of the hard work that he did for the archers. He kept me in line, and to be honest did most of the hard work. Thank you, Mika.

The rest of this summer will have many events with archery. Please enjoy your time out on the range, and if you can, offer to help the marshal. Their job is a hard one; please give them time to enjoy some of the day themselves.

The archers now have a good place to check their scores, and all sorts of other things. Please go to <http://www.scores-sca.org/home/index.php?R=1> to see this site. It has loads of information, and it will continue to grow. Every time a marshal adds a new score the site gets better and better. We even have the green card info on here to track and let us know when people are about to expire. This site is very fun to explore and look at all sorts of info.

The AG staff needs your input. We would like to know how we are doing. We are here for you, the archer. Our job is to keep archery fun for you all, but we need your input. Is there something that you would like to see us do, or do different? We would like to know if you feel that there is anybody that needs to get recognized with an award. Are there any shoots that you would like to see? Shoots that you don't want to see? Let us know.

All for now,

THCord Angus Montgomery the Forrester

Chirurgion

Many greetings to all!

I give thanks to Their Majesties for allowing me to serve Them and Their Kingdom as the new Kingdom Chirurgion. Our rolls have become sadly depleted of names of Outlands Chirurgions. If you are not on the roster (or your information is incorrect) I would ask you to please contact my credentials deputy, THL Conal (conal@chirurgionguild.org) or submit online at our website, (<http://outlands.chirurgionguild.org>). I would ask all those who are former chirurgions to please contact me. I would like to know why you left the chirurgionate and what we can do to bring you back! It seems across the SCA in recent years, we have lost chirurgions due to thinking of it as a time-intensive activity. You know you've thought it: "I don't want to sit at Point all day when I could be fighting/teaching/attending <insert activity here>". Being a chirurgion should never take the place of other activities but rather supplement your involvement. Think along the lines of "Oh look that fighter/bystander/person strolling by has a chirurgion favor on, I could ask them for a bandaid!"

If you haven't left for Battlemoor, I would ask everyone to bring any medications you will need with you. We are not the local drug store (though we can certainly give you directions to it!). In the wise words of a Baron recently, "The chirurgions aren't there to spoon feed you chicken soup!". However, we are very glad to assist within the scope of first aid ("Of course My Lady I would be happy to supply you with a bandaid") or emergency care ("I'll put pressure here, you get someone with a radio and call for help!"). I would remind chirurgions and populace alike the limit of the care should be basic first aid. If you go beyond this, you MUST introduce yourself as your mundane name and mundane certs. If you think you are going to act like a doctor ("Of course m'lord, lay down while I perform this appendectomy and tell you how to fix your high cholesterol!") please realize this is neither in the scope of the chirurgionate nor is it appropriate.

In Service to Crown and Kingdom,

Keterlyn von Eltz

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

Many wonderful people contributed with gifts, materials, pavilions, equipment, snacks, support, classes and activities for the youth at Battlemoor. When you see them, please say thanks! A very special thank you to the Coordinators of our Youth Programs and Performances: Sir Ton the Traveler – Magic Shows and Magic classes, THLady Medb Dúinfeichín -- Lucet classes and general support, Lord Domin d'Alsace -- Rapier Introduction classes, Lord Fjord Mahony -- Boffer Martial Arts Activities, the Barony of Fontaine dans Sable -- Youth Archery, Lady Willow of Caspian -- Bardic Performances and favors, and Lady Pettronella of Caer Galen -- Singing Classes, Singing Booklet and Director of the Battlemoor Youth Choir. Thanks also to all of our wonderful teachers and volunteers! Young Johnnie ¹

Johnnie rose on a May morning, called for water to wash his hands,
And call'ed for his twa greyhounds that were bound in iron chains,
That were bound in iron chains.²

Johnnie rode his great grey mare and the hounds before him go,
And they're all away to the great greenwood to hunt the red-tailed
Doe-oe,
To hunt the red-tailed doe.

Johnnie shot the dandy doe, she was wounded in the side,
And between the water and the wood, the greyhounds laid their bri-ide.
The greyhounds laid their bride.

Johnnie ate the venison and the dogs on gall did feed,
And the all lay doon and fell asleep, asleep as they did need,
Asleep as they did need.

Then by coom a silly old man and a silly old man was he,
And he is away to the King's Foresters to tell on young Johnnie-ee,
To tell on young Johnnie.

Seven men they heard him out and away they did ride,
And they come on Johnnie all alang and they shot him in the si-side,
They shot him in the side.

Johnnie shot-clap six of them and the seventh he wounded sore,
Then he laid his leg o'er his horseback and swore he would hunt no

mo-re,
He swore he'd hunt no more.

Johnnie rode his great grey mare to a thicket in the woods,
But left behind a blood-trail and they shot him where he sto-ood,
They shot him where he stood.

Now Johnnie's great bow is broke and his twa greyhounds are slain,
His body lies in moneymusk and his hunting days are dane.
His hunting days are dane.

¹The use of the word "shot clap" seems to refer to a linguistic use from the Orkney Islands. The actual food recipe (see below) looks much like someone who has been "shot at the side."

²Pronounced "I-Run" according to original transcript.

Clap Shot With Haggis

Transcription By: Winona Bartlemay

Ingredients: One medium Turnip. Some boiling Potatoes. One medium onion. A Haggis.

Introduction : I was leafing through an old SWRI cookbook the other day when I chanced on "Clap Shot." I had never heard of it before but I soon realised that it was very similar to how we prepared Tatties and Neeps [Scottish word for Turnip] to serve with Haggis. The dish is said to come from Orkney and combines three readily available Scottish Vegetables: Potato , Turnip and onion. The book suggests serving with Sausages but I think it's ideal with Haggis.

Method: Peel wash and chop the potato and Turnip. Finely chop the Onion. Bring the Potato and Turnip to the boil in separate pans and simmer till cooked. Fry the chopped Onion in some Butter till golden and soft. Mash the Potato and Turnip and combine mix in the fried onion. And serve with Haggis and Gravy. Haggis is very easy to cook it generally come in a synthetic casing these days and is cooked in water in this casing. Some can even be done in the microwave; in this case, you empty into a microwave bowl and cook for about 6 minutes.

That Wow Moment

By -Anzelm

At Stags Con this year (2009) the keynote speaker asked us all to remember our “Wow Moment”. Intrigued, I listened intently as she explained that we all had this moment. She described the moment as the point where you realized that you wanted to do this, to be a part of this. This got me thinking of what that moment was for me. I confess I am not a willing scadian, I had made a deal with my now fiancée that if I went to an SCA event, she would read a comic book (I have yet to see her pick up an issue of Batman). My first event was al-Barran Arts and Sciences last year. Looking through the displays and taking classes was fun, but I could have left that side of the SCA alone, I am not an artistic person, so all of that was over my head. I was uncommitted to going to any other events, but she talked me into Estrella War in February. I agreed to spend three days out there, and I had a wonderful time. This, however, was not my wow moment. Estrella, as fun as it was, did not mean much to me. I didn’t understand the precedents or pageantry of it; for me it was a hollow party.

Then, in March, looking over the lists on Yahoo, I realized that there had not been many posts on the Blaiddwyn group. I started to look at the list more often, and soon saw a meeting that was coming up. I decided to go, and there I met some of the most wonderful people. I started going to Wednesday practice, and one Wednesday the knight marshal asked if I had ever had a certain pizza place that is by the university. I said no, and the group of Blaiddwyners took me to it, as it was too cold to fight that day. While sitting and discussing Star Wars with this particular group of Blaiddwyners it clicked: this was a part of me. I am an unabashed geek, and these people accepted me for it.

What I realized that day was this: scadians are a family. It’s a group of people who share a common goal, to experience the current middle ages together. If you need something, they’re ready to help. If you have a question, they’re ready with an answer. If you need a laugh, they’ve already got a joke in mind. I decided that I needed to fight to protect that family and would help any way I could. I took on the role of setting up Winter Wolf last year, I became two officers in August, and helped autocrat an event in September. The deeper I get my head under water, the more I realize that this is a part of me, and it is something that makes me who I am. I owe it all to a group of four people who made me realize just what this organization is about, and I could not be a part of this without Blaiddwyn.

Random Things

By Lady Cáelainn ingen Cháemgein hui Thaiðe

I have been meaning to start writing an article for the Outlandish Herald for quite some time. This stems from my desire to share all kinds of things that I discover. I tell people, "You should write an article" and alas, they do not wish to. So I will do it for them. If they allow me, I will give them credit, or if not I will say they wish to remain anonymous. On the rare occasion that I share my own wisdom, I will let you know. If you would like to share something, and don't want to write an article yourself, Find me at an event, or e-mail me. Now on to this month's article.

This article has no credit per se. I ran across this recipe in my travels, and it was one of the most yummy recipes I have ever found. Also, given its nature, it is a wonderful way to make new friends, as it is a friendship bread. You make your dough, and then you pass along a piece of the dough to 3 of your friends; they make it and pass it along. It has the possibility of going from one end of the Outlands to the other (which would be very neat in my opinion). I hope you enjoy it.

Friendship Bread

Note: Do not use a metal spoon or bowl for mixing. Do not refrigerate. If air gets in the bag, let it out. The batter will thicken, bubble and ferment, this is normal.

Day 1: This is the day you receive the batter; do nothing

Day 2: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 3: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 4: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 5: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 6: Add 1 cup flour, 1 cup sugar, and 1 cup milk. Put batter in a larger ziplock bag and squeeze until mixed

Day 7: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 8: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 9: Squeeze the bag (mixing)

Day 10: Add 1 cup flour, 1 cup sugar, and 1 cup milk to the batter in a large (non metal) bowl. Mix with a wooden spoon or spatula. Pour four 1 cup starters into ziplock bags. Keep one starter for yourself, and give the other three to your friends, along with these instructions. To the remaining batter add:

remaining start

1 c. oil

1 c. sugar

1 t. vanilla

3 eggs

1 1/2 t. baking powder

1/2 t. salt

2 c. flour

1/2 c. milk

1/2 t. baking soda

1 large box instant vanilla pudding

2 t. cinnamon

Pour into two large, greased and sugared (with cinnamon and sugar mixed) loaf pans. You can sprinkle some extra cinnamon and sugar on top. Bake at 325° for 45-50 minutes or until a toothpick comes out clean.

Optional: add raisins or nuts if desired

Note: If you are starting this from scratch, you can make the starter by following "Day 6" and "Day 10," splitting it into 1 cup sections, and pretending you just received the batter, starting on day one.

Fees: Event is free to members. Non-member charge $3.00. Entry fee for general Zoo grounds not required for event entry.

With summer heat in full swing it's no time to be fighting in the Southern Outlands, therefore you are invited to celebrate the Arts and Sciences of the Current Middle Ages in the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass. In addition to classes, demonstrations, and competition, it is time for the populace to speak about our future here in the Citadel of the Southern Pass. Come cast your vote in the poll to help determine our new Baron and Baroness. Who will be the next fearless leaders and defenders of the South?

Directions: Take the King's Highway (I-25, then I-10) into El Paso to the Paisano Exit (Exit 24 A). Go South on Paisano for 1.5 miles. Zoo entry and parking will be on the right. If you take an alternate route and find yourself upon the path entering the very dangerous lands of Argonia, there is an opportunity to turn around before the border crossing.

From the Chairman of the Board:

We need your input! If you have an opinion about any of the nominees, your commentary, both positive and negative, is very much needed and gratefully received by the Board. You may comment on any aspect of the person's suitability as a director that you feel is important. In addition, new nominations are always needed and strongly encouraged as are re-nominations of any who expire. Any SCA member may nominate any member, including themselves. All information received is kept completely confidential, and no one ever sees commentary on themselves.

Please send all comments and nominations to Kim McAuley, Board Recruiting, PO Box 360789, Milpitas CA 95036, kmcauley@director.sca.org, or recruiting@sca.org. Please include your name and address in any letter sent concerning these matters, and remember to include the name and address of anyone you nominate for the Board so that we may contact them. You will receive a response indicating that we received your correspondence.

Outlandish Herald Submission Guidelines

Event Registration Forms can be found on the Kingdom website or from your Seneschal. Please make certain that a copy of the completed form is sent to the chronicler (see page 6 for contact info).

Event Announcements for events held within the boundaries of the Outlands will be printed free of charge. Groups from outside of the Outlands are invited to publish their event announcements at the commercial rates or contact the Chronicler about bartering for ad space, on a space available basis.

Electronic submissions are preferred. Hardcopy submissions will be accepted in any readable form but will be subject to retyping. Event announcements may be edited for length when space limitations occur. Please do not use any special formatting or fonts when submitting event announcements. Deadline for the submission of event announcements is the 1st of the month prior to publication.

ALL event announcements not containing mandatory elements will be returned to the submitter for correction. The following elements MUST be contained in the event announcement to ensure publication in the Outlandish Herald. If these mandatory elements are not included, the event notice will be returned to submitter for correction.

- Name of the event
- Date of the event (day, month and Common Era year)
- Times of the event - when the site opens and closes,
- Name of the sponsoring group
- Mundane location of the site (site name, city, state, zip), and WRITTEN directions. Maps are optional.
- Autocrat information: both SCA and legal names, address, telephone number, email address if available.
- A concise schedule of fees, including a statement regarding non-member fees. If there are no fees associated with the event, that must be clearly stated.
- The statement "Checks payable to 'SCA, Inc - GROUP NAME'".
- Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- Any additional site restrictions or information.

Commercial Advertisements:
